The Training Problem.

Obedience is not instinctive, as any father of a family can testify. There are, to be sure, American families in which the habit of obedience has been enforced for several generations and discipline has been one of the gifts of inheritance. But the number of such families has been rapidly decreasing under modern social influences. The soldier must be taught obedience. That is the chief, though not the only, object of military training. The hardest problem this nation confronts on the threshold of war is not the recruiting of soldiers, but their training. It is useless to wait over neglected plans. We must face the situation that exists.

Within a year there must be nearly 40,000 officers in our army. We have now only a small fraction of that number, and even in the regular army there is scarcity of officers competent to take hold of a body of men and instill in them the principles of obedience and discipline and the rudiments of modern military science. But the regular army man, no matter how limited his practice may have been in that kind of work, is in the way to master it quickly. With the reserve officers the task will be harder, but they will all have had some sort of training before they begin to train others. There will be no question of getting the number of men required. Every intelligent citizen knows that universal obligation to military service has always been the rule in this country, as it must be in a democracy. But the training will require the utmost devotion to duty on the part of officers and men.

Now is the time when the value of a system of compulsory military training for all able-bodied young Americans must be clear to the most obdurate advocate of peace. The military training of citizens does not mean militarism. It means the perpetual protection of citizenship. But we must now get along with raw troops trained as quickly as possible. The work can be done. There is no problem in the situation that cannot be solved, but in the future we must have a permanent army of trained citizens that will be ready for any emergency.—N. Y. ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

STATE OF MISSOURI,

County of Lafayette—ss.

In the Circuit Court of Lafayette County, Missouri, at Lexington, June Term, 1917.

Jesse L. Groves, Plaintiff

vs. No. 611

The unknown heirs, devisees or grantees of James Bounds, deceased; Sindrella Gudgel, Philena Bounds, Obediah Bounds, and Benjamin Bounds, if living, if not their unknown heirs, devisees, alienees and immediate, mesne, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees and assigns; the unknown heirs, devisees, alienees, or assigns of Benedict Thomas, deceased.

IN VACATION, APRIL 2nd, 1917.

Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein by his attorney, H. C. Wallace, and files his petition and affidavit, alleging that plaintiff is the owner in fee simple title and claims that interest and title to the following described real estate, situated in the County of Lafayette in the State of Missouri, to-wit: A tract of land described as follows: Beginning at the north east corner of the NW 1/4 section 35 township 51 range 27, and running thence south with the east line of said quarter section to a point where the east line of said quarter section is intersected by a line running east and west through and with the middle of South Street in Estill Heights, as said Street formerly crossed the E 1/2 of said quarter section, thence west with the middle of said South Street to a point in said middle of said South Street 500 feet east of west line of said E 1/2 NW 1/4 of said section 35, thence north parallel with said west line of said E 1/2 of said quarter section to a point in the north line of said quarter section 500 feet East of NW corner of E 1/2 NW 1/4 said section 35 thence east to the place of beginning, containing 20 acres of land more or less, except all coal underlying the same and all right and privileges heretofore granted for the mining and removal of said coal. Reference is here made to the plat of Estill Heights, recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of said Lafayette County for the location of said South Street in said Estill Heights.

Plaintiff states that the legal and equitable title to the above described real estate emanated from the government more than ten years before the filing of this petition, and that said real estate now is and has been for more than thirty-one years in the lawful possession of this plaintiff and those under whom he claims title, and who has during all this time been in actual, open, notorious, adverse and peaceable possession of the same claiming title thereto.

That plaintiff also has title to said real estate by and through mesne conveyances conveying to him the title to said property, that said real estate has not been in the possession of said defendants, or either of them, or any person claiming or who might claim the title, or through whom defendants or either of them might claim for more than thirty-one years, nor have defendants, or either of them or any one claiming title through or under them paid any taxes on said real estate during all of said thirty-one years, except this plaintiff and those under whom he claims title who have paid the taxes on said real estate for over thirty-one years; that the apparent title or claim of defendants herein and to said real estate is on account of the title of the ancestors of said defendants, viz: James Bounds, Jr., deceased, who derived his title by patent from United States government, July 5, 1825, which title said ancestor failed to convey by any proper conveyance, and which apparent title or claim of defendants is prejudicial to the plaintiff and the apparent title or claims of defendants herein the unknown heirs, devisees, alienees, or assigns of Benedict Thomas, deceased, to said real estate, is on account of a mortgage given by Isaac Chanslor to Benedict Thomas, of date November 10, 1865, of record in Book 1, page 353, Recorder's office, Lafayette County, Mo., to secure a note of same date for the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, which said mortgage remains unsatisfied of record, although the same has long since been paid. Plaintiff states that he cannot insert names of defendants herein because the same are unknown to him. Wherefore by reason of the premises the plaintiff prays the court to try, ascertain and determine the estate, title and interest of the plaintiff and defendants herein, respectively in and to the real estate aforesaid, and to define and adjudge by its judgment and decree the title or estate and interest of plaintiff and defendants herein severally in and to the aforesaid premises and that the court will adjudge and decree that the plaintiff is the sole owner in fee simple title to such land and real estate and that the defendants nor any of them do not have any legal right, title, claim or interest thereto or therein, and said real estate be adjudged and decreed to be in plaintiff, and that the title to same be vested in him by virtue of the Statute of Limitations under the provisions of Section 1884 of revised Statutes of 1909, and that said mortgage from Isaac Chanslor to Benedict Thomas be held to be satisfied and for naught held and barred by the Statute of Limitations.

It is therefore ordered by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Lafayette County, Missouri, in vacation, that said unknown defendants be notified that the plaintiff has commenced a suit against them in this court for the purposes of trying, determining, settling and quieting the title to the above real estate and by which said suit plaintiff seeks to forever bar and preclude said defendants and each of them from setting up or claiming any title or estate in and to said real estate adversely to the plaintiff, and that unless said defendants be and appear before this court on the 1st day of next Term thereof to be begun and holden at the Court House in the City of Lexington, in said County of Lafayette, on the 11th day of June 1917 next, and on or before the first day of said June Term answer or plead to the petition in said cause the same will be taken as confessed and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in The Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said County of Lafayette, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next June Term 1917 of this court.
